

EEI CELEBRATES

WOMEN'S

HISTORY MONTH

EEI Celebrates Women's History Month

Teresa leads EEI's financial strategy and finance, including accounting and reporting, business operations, tax planning, and treasury. Teresa has more than 20 years of experience in strategic planning and long-term financial growth while driving change management and business efficiencies.

TERESA BONESS
Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer

EEI Celebrates Women's History Month

Pat is the interim President and CEO of EEI and Chairman and CEO of TXNM Energy. She has served as a member of EEI's Board of Directors since 2010, and was the first woman to serve as Chair, from June 2017 to June 2018. In 2019, EEI recognized Pat with the Distinguished Leadership Award for her years of significant contributions and ongoing commitment to the electric power industry.

PAT VINCENT-COLLAWN

EEI Celebrates Women's History Month

Kristine leads EEI's External Affairs department and is responsible for outreach to state and local legislators and external stakeholders, as well as EEI's public affairs practice, which assists member companies in achieving legislative and policy success through issue advocacy tools and campaigns. Kristine also co-leads EEI's state practice team and is a past co-chair of EEI's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Council.

KRISTINE TELFORD
Executive Director of External Affairs

EEI Celebrates Women's History Month

Stephanie directs EEI's communications team, with responsibility for advertising, public policy communications, executive communications, creative strategy and design, Electric Perspectives magazine, earned media, stakeholder and strategic communications, research, social media and digital strategy, and EEI's website. She also directs EEI's member engagement team, with oversight of EEI member relations activities, as well as EEI's quarterly Board of Directors meetings and annual meetings.

STEPHANIE VOYDA
Senior Vice President of Communications and Member Engagement